ADVANCED STUDIES PROGRAM

2011-2012 Program
(200-hr RYT training)

SPRING SESSION – 02/11/12 – 06/05/12

OVERVIEW -

Downtown Yoga is a Yoga Alliance Registered Teacher Training School. The Advanced Studies program has been specifically designed to exceed the 200-hour Teacher Training program standards for registration with the Yoga Alliance (www.YogaAlliance.org).

The total program, which includes both a Fall and a Spring sessions, comprises 240 total hours of instruction in training, teaching methodology, yoga techniques, yogic philosophy and anatomy.

The FALL session begins September 10th, 2011 and ends on January 5th, 2012

The SPRING session begins on February 11th, 2012 and ends on June 5th, 2012

This will be our 7th year of the Advanced Studies Program at Downtown Yoga.

The SPRING SESSION (16 weeks) begins on Saturday – February 11, 2012 and ends on Tuesday – June 5, 2011.

WEEKEND SCHEDULE - (Saturday & Sunday):

February 11th & 12th
1:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. (includes 1/2 hour break)

Saturday – Partner’s Yoga Practices
Sunday – Exploring the Chakras

Saturday’s focus will be on working with partners in supportive and complimentary poses. Use each other’s body weight and support as grounding and leverage. Sunday’s focus is on exploring the charkas – the wheels of energy within the body.

March 10th & 11th
1:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

The Art of Sequencing

This weekend will focus on the art and science of sequencing poses for maximum benefit in all types of practices – both energizing and restorative practices. Learn when to use specific poses as counter and complimentary poses in a practice

April 14th, & 15th
1:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Therapeutic Yoga – Yoga for Ailments, Prenatal & Special Needs

Learn the proper approach to dealing with injuries or special needs. General yoga practices are sometimes not appropriate for all students – especially those involved in any type of physical recovery or ailment. However, utilizing proper yoga techniques can ease pain and speed recovery.

May 12th, & 13th
1:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Arms and Inversions

Handstands, Arm balances and inversions can be some of the most challenging poses and yet the most rewarding when practiced. These poses build confidence, strength, stamina and build concentration. This weekend will focus on making arm balance and inversions accessible even to the beginner.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR –

Kate Coughlin – 500hr –ERYT - is the Director of Downtown Yoga. She received her B.S. degree in Dance from Evergreen State University in Washington in 1972. Kate spent much of the 70's traveling between Hawaii, Alaska, Seattle and Europe. During this time she was fortunate to meet and be touched by Swami Muktananda, Indra Devi and Oscar Ichazo. Kate performed and taught modern dance in Seattle prior to moving to California in 1985.

In 1989, Kate developed the Yoga Program at Stanford University. She taught hundreds of students at Stanford from 1989 until spring of 2000 when she moved to Pleasanton, California with her husband and twin daughters. Kate founded Downtown Yoga in March of 2002. She is a graduate of Erich Schiffman's Teacher Training program. Kate continues to develop her practice by taking pranayama and asana classes Donald Moyer at the Yoga Room in Berkeley, California.
